The Global Insights Lecture Series is back for 2013 bringing MBS events to even more alumni across the globe via online webinars, to share different industry experience and practice around the world.

At each Global Insights lecture the guest speaker will share their personal career paths and experiences at MBS, reveal specialist knowledge and the challenges they face in their industry.

In this lecture Ronald Kong, Senior Vice President at China Hand Fund Management LLC, will draw on his extensive experience to present an overview of the Chinese economy in 2012. Ronald will reflect on the measures taken by the government to tackle the major economic issues, and the effects of such measures. He will then focus on the economic outlook for 2013 and sectors for investment in China.

Ronald is a seasoned international business executive with over 20 years global experience working across mainland China, Hong Kong, Europe and North America. Prior to working with private equity funds, Ronald was the Chief Representative and General Manager for Orange Business Services, responsible for developing portfolios in China. He completed his MBA at Manchester Business School in 2004 and was Chairman of the MBS Alumni Association China (MBSAAC) between 2007 and 2008.
