Mr. Bernard Wu, one of the MBS MBA graduates in 1999, is the member of various professional associations in Hong Kong and UK, as well as council member of some professional associations in Hong Kong. Being the vice-president of the Taxation Institute of Hong Kong, Mr. Wu is also the examination assessor of Taxation subjects of courses run by the Taxation Institute of Hong Kong and a local University.

Mr. Godwin Ng, an alumni and a chartered accountant, has been practising as a barrister-at-law in Hong Kong for some years, with major areas of practice in taxation and civil matters, after gaining substantial experience in tax appeals, field audit and investigation from the Inland Revenue Department. Mr. Ng is a regular speaker on taxation matters.

The speakers will share their views on the 2008/09 Budget in respect of the impact of the budget measures on the people and environment, business or otherwise, of Hong Kong in the short term and in the future as well as the rationale for the budget measures.
